To the Ballarat Woodworkers Guild Inc. 1984

The name of our incorporated non-profit association is "Ballarat Woodworkers Guild Incorporated" Hereinafter "Guild". The association registration number is A1836Z.

The purposes of the Guild are to foster and promote the appreciation of wood and all aspects of woodworking, to provide a meeting place for members, to encourage the exchange of ideas between members and other woodworking clubs, to provide books and magazines and videos for the promotion of woodworking, to provide equipment to improve the skills of woodworking, to conduct displays and demonstrations so as to bring woodworking to the public, and to encourage social interaction between members.

The financial year of the Guild is each period of 12 months ending on 30 April. On this date annual subscriptions become due.

I wish to become a member of the Guild. I support the purposes of the Guild and agree to comply with the Model Rules of the Guild and understand that a copy of said Model Rules is available on request. I will comply with all the Guild's Occupational Health and Safety directives as per my personal handbook and Guild notices.

I understand that the Guild Committee will decide by resolution whether to accept or reject this application. You will be notified in writing. In the event of rejection any monies accompanying the application will be returned in full. The Committee is not obliged to provide a reason for rejection.

If your application is approved then the Secretary or Treasurer will register your name in the Register of Members and issue a name badge and a Guild metal badge.

The rights of a Member are suspended if the annual subscription is not paid on the due date.

I note and agree to the above.
